Closing Exercises at the Public the Beholastic Year.

Yesterday afternoon the closing exercises of the scholastic season took place at the school building on Fourth street. The occasion caused the assembling of a number of visitors, including the school directors, interested spectators and tond parents. Perhaps a brighter and more interesting lot of children could not be found in the United States. Those who are possessed of the idea that Tombstone is a den of savages, composed of rough men, without the refining influence of women or children, should be present to see the interesting brood that Tombstone can turn out when occasion demands. With a slight interval, school has been in session for ten months. The progress that has out when occasion demands. With a slight interval, school has been in session for ten months. The progress that has been made in popular education in this city, within the past year is astonishing. A good deal of this is due to the energy and perseverance of Professor Sherman, aided by a progressive and public spirited school board. A year ago there was not an average attendance of more than eighty pupils. Now there is an attendance of two hundred. A year ago there was not as much furniture in the school room, as in the average prospectors tent. There was no text books of any account, not a map, atlas, globe, or any "tool of the trade." Now the public achools of Tombelone would be a credit to any community on the continent; they are well furnished, adequately supplied with books, maps, globes, and the other paraphnalia of the school room. The children attending, range all the way from six to eighteen years and are as well behaved, bright, intelligent and happy a crowd as could be found in this broad land. The teachers are, Prof. Sherman, principal, and Mrs. Stanton, Mrs. Gaston and Miss Santee, assistants. The exercises yesterday were not only creditable to the children by flatter. sistants. The exercises yesterday were not only creditable to the children but flatteronly creditable to the children but flattering in the extreme to the teachers. We never witnessed school exercises where the pupils were more self possessed. The more advanced, who read essays, were cool and calm, with well digested compositions that would be no disgrace to pretentious grown people. The little once who recited or sang were remarkable for their self possession, delightful impudence and practical self reliance. In this instance, as in most others, the girls were shead of the boys. We believe that the spectators present will bear us out in the assertion/that the girls were far more self possessed and "spoke their little piece" with more effect than the boys. The following was the bill of fare for the eccasion:

Recitation—I'm Little but I'm Spunky—John ny Wood.
Recitation—Taking Care of Baby... Ailie Hunt. Dialogue—Tattling—Mary Twomey, Clara Falkerson, Lizzie Murphy, Thaddie Carr, Welter Frice and Dennie Sullivan.
Recitation—Going to School... Sarah Lewellan, Dialogue—The Queerest thing in all the World—James Herrick, Willie Brown.
Recitation—Frecious Pearla... Stella Wade. Song... Raise Your Hands. Recitation—My Story... Annie Marmont. Composition—As is... Mary Castello. Recitation—The Boys... Frank Graf. Recitation—The Boys... Frank Graf. Recitation—The Braf.—Hulda. Jones, Minnie Jones, Linzie Murphy, Hinnie Hill, Eva Hawkins, Kailo Johnson. Mary Lewellan, Maggie Hill, Gerile McCormick. Kodie Hanlon, James Herrick, Lander Rood, Earnest Everoardy, Tom Marmont, Henry Thompson.
Composition—My Early Home... Belle Owsley. Song... Masic un the Waves. Recitation—Little Jack Horner. Charley Lochlin. Dialogue—Our Verse—Mande Alvord, Frank McCoullough.

ne, Birdie, Come...... Misses Uresby. on Jewelry.......... Edith Anderson. —A Follow Who is Game — Arthur

From this array it is difficult to call out the best. The generality was very good, but if we should single any out, we con-sider the following most worthy: Katie Johnson was the star of the occasion, and sider the following most worthy: Katie Johnson was the star of the occasion, and was closelyfollowed by the following, who are worthy of special mention. Mary Sullivan and Maggie Sullivan acquitted themselves very creditably and so did Cors Geodrich, Frank Anderson, Allie Howe, Edith Anderson, Annie English, Johnny Woods, Mary Welch, the two Missaes Owsley's and Elinore Ingersoll. At the conclusion of the exercises, the Revs. Peabody, McIntyre, Robinson and O'Leary, were called on to make a few remarks. Messrs. McIntyre and Peabody declined, Dr. Robinson made a few happy remarks and Father O'Leary made a neat little speech, complimenting the children on the success of their exercises, wishing them a pleasant vacation and hoping that the next school year, would find them all at their deaks, bright and happy. Mr. Goodrich, school trustee, was then called upon, but he naively declined, saying that Judge Drum did all the talking for the board. Mr. Drum was then forced to the front and retalisted on Goodrich in geod style, besides delivering a witty and appropriate speech to the pupils. This was the close of the extremes. The parents of the children in particular, and Tombstone in general, should be proud of the pupils of the public schools.

A FISTIC ENCOUNTER.

An Old Fashloued way of Settling Dispute.

couple of Cornishmen employed at one of the local mines got into a dispute a few days ago that could not be settled by pacific means. Their names are Arthur Charles and Bob Small. Their friends interfered and tried to make the parties come to an amicable settlement, but their sefforts bore no fruit. The friends of both were boasting that their own individual partisan was the best man of the two. Finally it was decided to put up $200, and let the disputants retire outside the city limits and decide who was the best man and definitely settle their difficulty. All was arranged, and yesterday afternoon they quietly walked about a mile and a half north of town and commenced work in a nice level such. There were ten in a nice level gulch. There were ten rounds fought and the battle lasted more than an hour. It was pretty evenly con-tested for the first seven rounds, and then the spectators began to see that Small was going to have the best of the fight. Still Charles would not give up, but pluckily held up until he was completely knocked out of time at the tenth round. It was a square, stand-up fight, fought in accord-ance with the rules of the ring. Charles was pretty badly punished, having both eyes decorated and is minus several teeth. eyes decorated and is minus several seem. The affair was conducted quietly, only a few friends of the parties being present to

CLERK OF THE DISTRICT COURT.

An Interview with the District Attorney.

A reporter of the EPITAPH, yesterday, in-terviewed the District Attorney, respecting the matter of the demand of Mr. Seamans, clerk of the District Court, against the county for services rendered in criminal

The District Attorney stated to the representative of the EPITAPH that he is re-quired by law to oppose the payment by the Supervisors of all unjust and illegal demands against the county, and in exam-ination of Clerk Seamans bill, he had found illegal charges, amounting to more than a thousand dollars. That he had so reported to the Supervisors and opposed the payment of the bill to the extent of the overcharges. A portion of the charges contained in this bill have been heretolore presented by Mr. Sear, ans for payment and rejected, and are now presented for the second time. After the bill had been first rejected, it seems that there was a sort of extra official agreement between Mr. Seamans and some members of the old Board to take the opinion of Judge Lewis in the matter. I understood that I was to be heard in the matter, but for some reason, probably by oversight on the part of Judge Lewis, I not only had no opportunity to be heard, but did not know anything whatever of the arrangement until I was handed Judge Lewis' findings at the time the present bill was referred to me. I consider it a one sided affair. I believe if I had had an opportunity to show Judge Lewis the reasons and statutes which guided me in opposing these items, opinion would have been different.

I do not think there is room for a doubt in the matter. The statute is very explicit and plain, and it amounts to a prohibition against paying many of the items charged in the bill.

Our laws contain two fee bills for two classes of services—one for civil and one for criminal cases. The civil fee bill de-tails the charge which the clerk may make or each item of service performed.

The criminal fee bill reads as follows:

"The clerk may receive on the trial of an issue, when the charge is felony, five dollars; on the trial of an issue when the charge is a misdemeanor, two dollars; en-tering judgment, one dollar. He shall re-ceive no other fee for any service whatever ceive no other fee for any service whatever in a criminal action or proceeding, except for copies of papers at the rate of twenty cents for every hundred words."

When the present bill first came up in the Board, a full statement of the facts was made on both sides, and the Board was agreed that the county ought to be represented at the hearing and disposition of a matter of so much importance. They therefore declined to pay this bill, and instructed me to make an agreed case with Seamans, if he desired to submit to Judge Stillwell. Stilwell.

Seamans is apparently unwilling that it should be submitted to the court, and is doing his best to induce the Supervisors to change their minds.

There would be no difficulty in making an agreed case, and the Judge's conclusion upon it would be satisfactory and final. If Seamans has any faith in the legality of his demands I don't see why he should be affaid to submit the matter to the court.

afraid to submit the matter to the court.

R.—Have you any idea why the report of the committee of the frand Jury concerning the Recorder's office was not submitted to the press by the clerk with the rest of the report?

Mr. P.—It may have been an oversight on the part of the clerk. I understand the report was very flattering to Mr. Jones and that Seamans is a prospective candidate for County Recorder. That may have had something to do with it. I know nothing about it.

Probable Beath of Texas Jack. A well known gentleman returned to this city yesteriay after an absence of some six weeks. He states that while riding on a Santa re railroad train approaching Las Vegas, New Mexico, he met Texas Jack, who was well known here as a warm triend and partisan of the Earps. Our informant and "Texas" were well acquainted, but strange to say the latter did not recognize him when they met on the train. Soon, however, Jack and some traveling com-Jack said the Earps were brave, honest men and true patriots, in fact that they were anything that was not bad. He also gave his opinion of the so called cowboys, stating that they were all a pack of murdering thieves, villians and stage robbers. Our informant, who was an eager listener to this conversation, expressed an opinion at this stage of the conversation opinion at this stage of the conversation directly in opposition to the remarks made by Jack. The traveling companions became interested and asked our friend for further information, which was given with a will. Jack became uneasy in the course of the recital and passed from in the course of the recital and passed from the car. The conductor soon returned with the information that he had jumped with the information that he had jumped off the train while it was going at the rate of sixty miles an hour. The train was stopped and backed up, but no trace of him could be found. During the return trip, a few days ago, the conductor informed our informant that a person answering to the description of Jack had been found dead about fifty teet from the track near the point where he jumped off on the occasion just related.

The Work of a Crank. A few evenings ago Charley Tribolett and A. Eyimar became engaged in a quar-rel on Allen street. It was caused by Eyi. mar calling Tribolett a vile name, tor which he get promptly knocked down. He get on his legs again and engaged in a fight, but was interrupted by the appear-ance of Officer Kenney, who arrested them both. The recorder was not in the court at the time, and Mr. Hawkins went bail for Tribolett. Eyimar had no bail and requested the officer to accompany him to provide a bondsman. This was done, and they crossed the street to P. W. Smith's. He could find no bail there, and became abusing the officer with all abusive, threatening the officer with all kinds of things, for daring to arrest him. For this he was very properly taken back and consigned to a cell, until bail was pro-cured. Yesterday this "high binder," smarting under his imprisonment, had Ofsmarting under his imprisonment, had Officer Kenney arrested for false imprisonment. Of course the officer was immediately released, having done nothing but his duty in the premises. It was very annoying to a capable and efficient officer, such as Mr. Kenney is universally admitted to be, to be made the target of a crank. But then he is too well known, personally and officially to be injured by such a proceeding.

A Hose Test. The engine company took a hose truck to 9th street, between Fremont and Safford yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of turning on a full head of Huachuca water to test the strength of their hose. This was done by foreign of their hose. In is was done by foreign Blackburn, so as to acquaint himself with the amount of reliability he could place in his hose under a full head of water. It stood the test well. It required the utmost strength of eight men to hold the hose up under the immense strain of a full head of water. A stream of water was thrown about 125 feet high, and not less than 250 feet with the nozzle at an angle of 45 degrees. test was more than satisfactory to all who witnessed it, especially to the city officials, firemen and officers of the Huschuca water company.

BOOMING RUSSELL.

Budget of News from the Lively Camp North of Us.

> Correspondence of the EPITAPH RUSSELL, June 11, 1882.

In accordance with the purport of the minutes, and the clerk's request, I herewith mail you a copy of the proceedings of the Democratic primary meeting held here on the 10th. This was the first effort of our camp at a political meeting, and from the goodly showing made the Democracy may expect some substantial help from this place in coming contests. There were some thirty-five persons present, with fully half that number at the mines unable to attend on account of work, besides several others for various reasons absent.

The camp is steadily advancing with the work that is being done on the mines, and there is a heavy force at work on the Peabody, under Mr. Al. Burrington, foreman, and that mine is turning out to be a veritable bonanza. The ore bodies are improving in size as well as richness, and besides the heavy bearing of the rock in copper and silver. as heretofore, it now carries in gold $24 per ton. Other mines will soon be in full blast that bid fair to rival the Peabody. In fact negotiations are pending for heavy transactions, upon which vigorous development will be made on several valuable properties here.

The Russell company's smelter will start to-morrow, again, after being delayed on account of scarcity of water. They have just completed another large well, which gives them abundance of water and no further impediment to the continued operation of their smelter is anticipated.

An effort is being matured to place the merits of our district before the Denver Exposition, which the camp deems of inestimable value in keeping abreast with the time.

Socially we have nothing of import, but keen-eved rumor says we are to have an event, if occurrences keep their even tenor. Yours truly, PRIMARY MEETING. Primary meeting of the Democrats Russell, June 10, 1882.

Meeting called to order at 7 p. m. and on motion A. Jordan was unanimously chosen permanent chairman, and John L. Smart was chosen permanent clerk.

The chairman then stated the obect of the meeting to be to elect a delegate to the Democratic County Convention, to be held in the city of Tombstone on the 24th inst., for the purpose of electing delegates for the county to the Territorial Convention, to be held at Phoenix, and to select a Democratic Executive Committee for the county; and declared the meeting ready for business, whereupon the following resolutions were offered, and on motion adoped:

Be it resolved that we, the Democrats of Russell, in primary meeting assembled, announce and declare the concur in the time-honored principles of Democracy.

Second: That we earnestly approve the general and thorough oranization of the Democratic party in Cochise county, that is now being made, and we sincerely pledge our most zealous efforts to its success.

Third: That we proceed to the election of a delegate and alternate to represent us in the county convention to be held at the city of Tombstone, June 24, 1882.

The chair then announced nominations for delegate in order. After nominations made, and ballot taken, Mr. A. Joerss was declared elected delegate.

Motion made and unanimously carried that Mr. Samuel Purdy of the EPITAPH, be cleeted alternate for this camp, and as such requested to act. Motion made that a copy of these proceedings be sent the Tombstone warts took part.

EPITAPH, carried. Motion made to adjourn, and carried.

The policeman came up at the time and both men were arrested and taken to the city jail. White the officers were making a light, Archer again made a voilent attack on Mr. Dean, struck him a heavy blow over the eye, inflicting an ugly wound. The officers had to handle the fellow roughly to make him desist, and he was finally placed in the cooler.

W. W. Hubbard, of the Santa Maria Gold and Silver Mining Company, of So-nora, is in the city. He reports that Amer-icans are settling all along the valley of the Sonora river, and establishing ranches Most of them have a few head ot horses and cows, and are building comfortable houses. Seven out of ten men that one meets on the road are Americans. The Santa Maria company is building a road from the Sonora river to the railroad, over which will be brought the machinery for the mines. Malter, Lind & Co. have contracted to construct the road for the sum of $30,000, and they will also build the mill. The grade of the road will be established with a view of placing a narrow guage railroad upon it, in case developments justify the increased expense. Mr. Hubbard will return to his place of busi ness in a few days.
